CCI Europe 2018

From Egocentric to Ecocentric

Finding a healthy balance between 'me' and 'our world'

Gartmore House

in

Loch Lomond & The Trossachs National Park, Scotland

Saturday 28th July to Saturday 4th August

We invite you to join with us to explore our relationship with our-selves and our world in a week-long event in the summer of 2018.

We have found an exciting and beautiful venue with hosts keen to work with us to create a profound experience. There will be opportunities for multi-lingual workshops indoors and outside and, of course, lots of sessions. We will endeavour to support participants whose first language is not English. Or, if you prefer, you can simply come and enjoy what is one of the most beautiful parts of Scotland.

GARTMORE HOUSE

Gartmore House is a magnificent 19th century country house set in the Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park in Scotland near to Aberfoyle. The venue is ideal for walking, cycling and exploring nature.

The single, double and other bedrooms are very comfortable and accessible by lift. The toilet and shower facilities for campers in the main house are first class. The host team at Gartmore House is happy to work with us on the various dietary requirements.

FROM EGO-CENTRIC TO ECO-CENTRIC

The world around us is changing fast. Judgemental and materialistic Us-Them divisions seem to be deepening and undermining our world's social fabric. Outright lying in the face of evidence and fear mongering have become normal currency which undermines everyone's trust. Denial of climate change affects all our lives.

How can we use Co-Counselling to live through the upheavals and develop a sustainable world?

We encourage workshops around 'Finding a healthy balance between 'me' and 'our world''. We invite you to prepare workshops at other CCI events between now and summer 2018. We will ☺. Please think with us: What can be offered to make 'From Ego-centric to Eco-centric' as inspiring as possible?
